PREAMBLE

This Policy is a contract of insurance issued by Acme General Insurance Company Limited to the Policyholder named in the Schedule, in consideration of the premium received and on the basis of the statements made in the proposal form. This Policy records the entire agreement between the parties.

SECTION 1 - DEFINITIONS

The following words and expressions have the meanings assigned to them below wherever they appear in this Policy.

1.1 Accident

An accident means a sudden, unforeseen and involuntary event caused by external, visible and violent means.

1.2 Cashless Facility

Cashless facility means a facility under which the Company pays the cost of treatment directly to the Network Provider, to the extent admissible under the Policy, so that the Insured Person need not pay at the time of discharge.

1.3 Hospital

A Hospital means any institution established for in-patient care which has at least ten in-patient beds in towns with a population below ten lakhs and fifteen in-patient beds elsewhere, qualified nursing staff round the clock, a fully equipped operation theatre, and maintains daily records of patients accessible to the Company.

1.4 Pre-existing Disease

A Pre-existing Disease means any condition, ailment, injury or disease that is diagnosed by a physician, or for which medical advice or treatment was recommended by or received from a physician, within forty-eight months prior to the effective date of the first policy issued by the Company to the Insured Person.

1.5 Sum Insured

Sum Insured means the pre-defined limit specified in the Policy Schedule, representing the maximum liability of the Company for any and all claims made during the Policy Year.

1.6 Network Provider

Network Provider means a hospital or health care provider enrolled by the Company or its Third Party Administrator to provide medical services on a cashless basis.

1.7 Day Care Treatment

Day Care Treatment means medical or surgical procedures undertaken under general or local anaesthesia in a hospital or day care centre in less than twenty-four consecutive hours because of technological advancement.

1.8 Co-payment

Co-payment means a cost sharing requirement under which the Insured Person bears a specified percentage of each admissible claim. A co-payment does not reduce the Sum Insured.

SECTION 2 - SCOPE OF COVER

2.1 In-patient Treatment

The Company shall indemnify medical expenses incurred by the Insured Person for hospitalisation of more than twenty-four consecutive hours during the Policy Period arising from illness or injury, up to the Sum Insured specified in the Schedule.

2.2 Pre-hospitalisation Expenses

Medical expenses incurred during the sixty days immediately preceding the date of admission are payable, provided the claim for in-patient treatment is admissible.

2.3 Post-hospitalisation Expenses

Medical expenses incurred during the ninety days immediately following the date of discharge are payable, provided the claim for in-patient treatment is admissible.

2.4 Day Care Treatment

Expenses for day care treatment taken in a hospital or day care centre are payable notwithstanding that the hospitalisation is for less than twenty-four hours.

2.5 Road Ambulance

Expenses incurred on transportation of the Insured Person by road ambulance to a hospital are payable up to two thousand rupees per hospitalisation.

2.6 AYUSH Treatment

Expenses for in-patient treatment taken under Ayurveda, Yoga, Naturopathy, Unani, Siddha and Homeopathy systems of medicine in a recognised hospital are payable up to the Sum Insured. This benefit was introduced with effect from 1 April 2026.

SECTION 3 - BENEFITS AND SUB-LIMITS

The following sub-limits apply to the benefits listed. All amounts are per Policy Year unless stated otherwise. Where the Insured Person occupies accommodation whose rent exceeds the eligible limit, all associated medical expenses shall be proportionately reduced in the same ratio, except in respect of intensive care.

Benefit	Sub-limit	Applies from
Room rent, boarding and nursing	1% of Sum Insured per day, maximum Rs. 5,000 per day	Day 31
Intensive Care Unit charges	2% of Sum Insured per day, maximum Rs. 10,000 per day	Day 31
Cataract surgery	Rs. 40,000 per eye	After 24 months
Maternity expenses - normal delivery	Rs. 50,000	After 36 months
Maternity expenses - caesarean section	Rs. 75,000	After 36 months
Modern treatment procedures	50% of Sum Insured	After 24 months
Road ambulance	Rs. 2,000 per hospitalisation	Immediate
AYUSH in-patient treatment	Up to Sum Insured	Day 31

3.1 Co-payment

A co-payment of ten per cent shall apply to each and every admissible claim where the Insured Person is aged sixty-one years or above at the time of first enrolment. No co-payment applies to Insured Persons enrolled before the age of sixty-one.

SECTION 4 - EXCLUSIONS

The Company shall not be liable to make any payment under this Policy in respect of any expenses incurred in connection with or in respect of the following.

4.1 Investigation and Evaluation

Expenses related to any admission primarily for diagnostics and evaluation purposes, and any diagnostic expenses not related to a current diagnosis or treatment, are excluded.

4.2 Rest Cure and Rehabilitation

Expenses related to any admission primarily for enforced bed rest, custodial care, or services for people who are terminally ill to address their physical, social, emotional and spiritual needs, are excluded.

4.11 Dental Treatment

Dental treatment, dental surgery and orthodontic procedures of any kind are excluded from the scope of this Policy. This exclusion shall not apply where such treatment is necessitated by an accident and requires hospitalisation for at least twenty-four consecutive hours. Routine dental check-ups, scaling, polishing and cosmetic dentistry are never payable under any circumstances. Where the exception applies, the Insured Person must submit the treating dentist's report together with evidence of the accident within thirty days of discharge.

4.12 Cosmetic and Aesthetic Treatment

Expenses for cosmetic or plastic surgery are excluded unless required as part of medically necessary treatment to remove a direct consequence of an accident, burn injury or cancer, and certified as such by the attending medical practitioner.

4.13 Obesity and Weight Control

Expenses related to the surgical treatment of obesity are excluded, unless the surgery is advised by the treating medical practitioner, the Insured Person has a Body Mass Index of forty or above, or thirty-five or above with an associated co-morbidity, and the condition has not responded to at least three months of documented conservative management.

4.14 Infertility and Sterility

Expenses related to sterility and infertility, including assisted reproduction services, gestational surrogacy and reversal of sterilisation, are excluded.

4.15 Hazardous Activities

Expenses related to any treatment necessitated due to participation as a professional in hazardous or adventure sports, including para-jumping, rock climbing, mountaineering, rafting, motor racing, horse racing and scuba diving, are excluded.

4.16 Breach of Law

Expenses for treatment directly arising from or consequent upon any Insured Person committing or attempting to commit a breach of law with criminal intent are excluded.

SECTION 5 - WAITING PERIODS

The following waiting periods apply from the date of commencement of the first Policy with the Company, and are not reset on renewal without a break.

Waiting period	Duration	Applies to
Initial waiting period	30 days	All illnesses except accidental injury
Pre-existing diseases	36 months	Any declared pre-existing condition
Specified diseases and procedures	24 months	Cataract, hernia, hysterectomy, joint replacement
Maternity benefit	36 months	Delivery and related expenses
Bariatric surgery	36 months	Surgical treatment of obesity

5.1 Pre-existing Diseases

Any pre-existing disease and its direct complications shall be excluded until the expiry of thirty-six months of continuous coverage from the first policy inception date with the Company. This waiting period was reduced from forty-eight months to thirty-six months with effect from 1 April 2026 and applies to all policies incepted or renewed on or after that date.

5.2 Specified Diseases and Procedures

A waiting period of twenty-four months applies to cataract, benign prostatic hypertrophy, hernia of all types, hysterectomy, joint replacement surgery, and treatment for stones in the urinary and biliary systems.

5.3 Accidental Injury

No waiting period applies to hospitalisation necessitated by an accident occurring after the commencement of the Policy.

SECTION 6 - CLAIMS PROCEDURE

6.1 Intimation of Claim

The Insured Person must notify the Company or the Third Party Administrator of any claim within twenty-four hours of an emergency hospitalisation, and at least forty-eight hours prior to a planned hospitalisation.

6.2 Cashless Facility

For cashless treatment the Insured Person must obtain pre-authorisation from the Third Party Administrator at least forty-eight hours prior to a planned hospitalisation at a Network Provider. In case of emergency admission, intimation must be given within twenty-four hours of admission. Pre-authorisation is granted on the basis of the information furnished and does not constitute an admission of liability.

6.3 Reimbursement Claims

Where treatment is taken at a hospital that is not a Network Provider, the Insured Person must pay the hospital and submit the claim for reimbursement. All original documents, including the discharge summary, itemised bills, payment receipts, investigation reports and the treating doctor's prescriptions, must reach the Company within fifteen days of discharge.

6.4 Settlement Timelines

The Company shall settle or reject a claim within thirty days of receipt of the last necessary document. Where an investigation is warranted, it shall be completed within thirty days and the claim settled within forty-five days of receipt of the last necessary document.

6.5 Repudiation

Where a claim is repudiated, the Company shall communicate in writing the grounds for repudiation with reference to the specific clause of the Policy relied upon, and inform the Insured Person of the grievance redressal procedure.

SECTION 7 - GENERAL CONDITIONS

7.1 Free Look Period

The Insured Person has a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of the Policy to review its terms and, if not acceptable, to cancel the Policy and receive a refund of premium subject to deduction of proportionate risk premium and expenses incurred on medical examination and stamp duty.

7.2 Renewal

The Policy shall ordinarily be renewable for life, subject to payment of premium in advance. The Company shall not deny renewal on the ground of an adverse claims experience except in the case of established fraud or non-disclosure of material facts.

7.3 Portability

The Insured Person may port the Policy to another insurer at the time of renewal, and shall be given credit for the waiting periods already served, subject to an application made at least forty-five days before the renewal date.

7.4 Grievance Redressal

Any grievance may be addressed to the Grievance Officer of the Company. If the Insured Person is not satisfied with the resolution within fifteen days, the matter may be escalated to the Insurance Ombudsman having jurisdiction.

7.5 Fraudulent Claims

If any claim is fraudulent, or if any fraudulent means are used to obtain a benefit, all benefits under this Policy shall be forfeited and the Policy may be cancelled ab initio.
